Resource List

We at The Gay Couples Study want to ensure that your experience with us was and continues to be positive and beneficial for you. Therefore, we are providing you with this list of resources and referrals for support should you need it. It contains listings for therapists, LGBT community centers, HIV/AIDS resources, health clinics, substance use and recovery support, free needle exchanges, social support groups, and emergency hotline numbers.

Please note that the therapists listed here specialize in LGBT issues and couples therapy, among their other specialties. We have requested that they provide their services using a sliding scale if necessary. They are also able to provide you with documentation for insurance reimbursement.
